

Cat and mouse

How to play

- 1 Tell your toddler that she is a cat and she is going to chase you, as you are a little mouse.
- 2 Crawl quickly around furniture and in other rooms encouraging your child to chase you. When she understands the game then you can swap roles.

This game is not only fun on a rainy day but it encourages the development of large motor skills as well as introducing role-play.

Please remember to recycle this activity