

iChild[®].co.uk

Climbing cushions

From 6 months old

Take a couple of cushions and pile them on the floor. Put your baby in front of the cushions and allow him to climb. You could tempt him to climb by placing a favourite toy on the top.

This activity encourages the development of the large motor muscles needed for crawling and walking.

Please remember to recycle this activity