

iChild[®].co.uk

Family photos

From 6 months old

Collect pictures of family members and either laminate them or place them on sturdy cardboard mounts.

Let your baby play with them or you could also hang them from their buggy or cot. Your baby will be learning how to visually discriminate, follow and track objects, it will also enhance their emotional development as they learn to recognise and name their family.

Please remember to recycle this activity