

Tape recording fun

From 3 months old

Using a tape recorder or dictaphone, record your baby's babbling. Then play back the tape and see how she responds. Does she talk back or get excited?

This activity is good for early recognition of language and encourages communication skills.

Please remember to recycle this activity