

A black and white line drawing of a Halloween scene. At the top, a skeleton is peeking over a fence, with several bats flying around. To the right, two ghosts are waving. In the center, two witches in pointed hats are stirring a large cauldron over a fire. A ghost is peeking out from behind the cauldron. At the bottom, there are several jack-o'-lanterns with different faces, a black cat sitting on one, and an open suitcase. The scene is framed by a simple border.
