

Measuring

Paula is putting sand into a bucket.
She finds that she can fill six buckets
from her pile of sand.

How many buckets will she be able to fill from a pile twice this size?

How many buckets will she be able to fill from a pile half this size?

Please remember to recycle this activity

Penny's horse Chocolate is ten of her hands high. Her baby foal is half her size. How high is the baby?

Please remember to recycle this activity

iChild[®].co.uk

Rick and Sarah are filling the car with boxes. They have twenty boxes already and they add three more. How many have they got?

Please remember to recycle this activity