

Ecosystems

An ecosystem is where lots of creatures and plants live and interact together. A rotting log or a wood is a tiny ecosystem. The largest ecosystems are called biomes. The desert or a tropical forest is a biome.

Ecosystems contain lots of food chains which link together in a food web. Here is a local ecosystem.

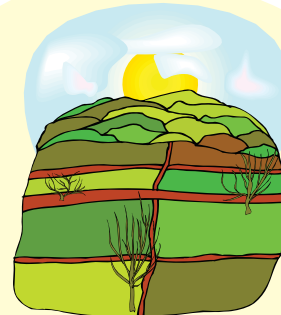

Pond

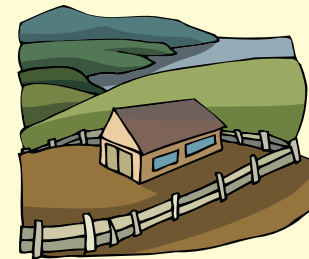

River

Woods

Fields

Farm

Please remember to recycle this activity

Make a list of some of the plants, birds, mammals and insects that might live in this ecosystem.

Plants	Birds	Mammals	Insects

Please remember to recycle this activity